Introducing the Thriving Women 2027 Conference

WoTL Ltd invite you to submit an expression of interest to be a member of the Thriving Women 2027 Conference Team.

The Thriving Women Conference is hosted by WoTL (Women Learning Together), a not-for-profit organisation providing insightful leadership through collaboration to elevate women's positive influence within the agricultural sector. The Thriving Women Conference has successfully been held since 2018. WoTL is excited to bring the conference to South Australia in 2027.

Thriving Women 2027 will bring together 200 rural, regional and remote women to discuss issues important to them, their industry and the wider rural sector. It will also be an opportunity for women to develop strategies to influence the future direction of their own business, industries and communities. The conference will be held at The Adelaide Hills Convention Centre, Hahndorf on the 9-10 August 2027. While most attendees will be women, WoTL recognises and encourages the need for men to be actively involved in creating cultural change.
